

GREAT QUAKES FORWARD

COPYRIGHT 2008 TOM T. MOORE

Two years ago I had been distributing motion pictures and TV programs on a worldwide basis for over 20 years. Although we were a small company based in Dallas, Texas instead of the large distribution centers of Los Angeles or New York, we had found our “niche” in licensing classic films to DVD companies and TV broadcasters. I was quite business oriented, with the exception that I had been requesting Benevolent Outcomes in both my business and personal life from my Guardian Angel for about ten years. These are requests for some benevolent action with the assistance of your Guardian Angel. I estimated that I had made these requests between 10,000 and 15,000 times and they worked PERFECTLY!

Then I tried what I now call an “active” meditation for the first time, during a trip to Sedona, Arizona in July of 2005. I wanted to know why I was the only person to consistently use these requests, since I had first read about the suggestion to use them in an article by Robert Shapiro in the Sedona Journal of Emergence. I had even written a couple of articles about my successes, which were quite well received by the Journal’s readers.

In my first meditation, I was told that I was to “reintroduce” Benevolent Outcomes in the 21st Century, I was to write a book, and was even given the title of the book—“The Gentle Way.” Later I added the subtitle “A Self-Help Guide For Those Who Believe in Angels.” My first reaction was, “Who me?” After the shock wore off, I set about writing the book whenever I had the chance—weekends and even during the workday. Finally my wife and daughter, who work with me, suggested that I work on our regular business on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays and work solely on writing the book on Tuesdays and Thursdays. With that schedule, I was able to finish the book by the end of November 2005. If I became stuck, I would say, “OK guys, I need you to download some more material.” In a few minutes I would be rapidly typing again.

Also during this time I got into the habit of doing these “active” meditations four times a week. Before each meditation I would write out several questions on the page of a spiral notebook and then type the first one under the date of the meditation. I would put myself in an “altered state” and then open my eyes long enough to read the question. I would then listen to the answer.

At first my accuracy was down around 15% to a high of 30% I was told. As I continued to meditate, each month I would ask if my accuracy was improving. I was told over and over again to “Practice, Practice, Practice.” I was told this so many times that I finally gave up asking, but I could tell I was receiving the answers better and better. After having done these active meditations for over two years, I know that if I can do this, anyone can. It just takes practice. It’s like learning to ride a bike, play chess, or learn a new language. I set a goal for myself of being in the 90% range of accuracy. I have been told that 100% is almost impossible even for those people known as “deep-trance-channels”. It was explained that so many variables enter the equation because of the person’s belief system, education, health, and other things beyond our control. We receive “thought packets” that have to be converted to our language. I think that’s how many people will communicate across space someday. Perhaps spaceships will have “communicators” on board that will specialize in instantly contacting their home planet through other “communicators.” Or perhaps everyone will be able to do this, taught at an early age through meditation.

When I kept receiving messages about these great earth changes that are coming, I asked is it your understanding that I’m to write a book to be published about all of this? I was told by the soul of the earth, “Yes. Absolutely. You have been given this mission and accepted it on a soul level, so although there is free choice and technically you could refuse, you won’t. That’s one of the major reasons you incarnated at this time period was in order to assist the population with the changes to come. You will find a publisher and your book will have a positive influence on those that wish to avoid the two earthquakes or events as you call them. These are natural movements in my earth’s crust in order to bring about great changes. It is a very momentous time period for you. Use it well and you will accomplish what you came here to do.”

In my first book I devoted one section of my Appendix to explaining how I meditated and gave some examples of questions I had asked. You can verify my accuracy for yourself in the predictions and information that I will give in the following pages, and you can ask your own questions. Don’t just rely on what I say will happen—confirm or reject the information for these predictions in your own active meditations. In doing these you will be able to ask more specific questions for the area where you live. You can look upon these predictions as simply a “potential” for the earth.

Although the information I will give in this book will affect everyone in North America and eventually the world, you can choose to be “proactive” and make positive choices for your future, or just sit there and wait to see what happens. It’s your choice.
